

MASTERCLASS

learn from the best

Welcome

The 2020-21 season will be the third edition of Masterclass. For the past two years the program has been educating more than 20 coaches all looking for inspiration from the next level. We are happy to announce this years program and schedule and hope you will find this relevant in your personal journey as a coach. Masterclass in a coaches education running for more than half a year, with national team coach of Denmark, Erez Bittman as the mentor and main lecturer.

Why Masterclass?

The idea of the course is to

- inspire coaches to aim for the next level and get a more clear idea of what it takes to get there.
- facilitate the opportunity to build a strong network among coaches.
- higher the number of well educated coaches to help building our sport.

Concept

Total course load is 95 hours.

The course is running from October to April. The course is partly virtual through a series of coherent online clinics and partly meeting each other twice during the course.

All coaches are busy, so efficient and targeted learning is key.

The course is tailored to give each participant a large output and really help each one to pick up important building blocks in their journey. The feedback from previous participants has been used to create a course with a fitting load, so everyone benefits and can carry through.

Who?

Masterclass is for the

- coaches with motivation to become a professional coach.
- former players who want to pass their experience on to the next generation.
- coaches who want to make an impact for their club.
- coaches who want to develop the sport in general.
